

ZIV EITAN

A black and white photograph of a young man with long hair, identified as Ziv Eitan, performing on a marimba and drums. He is wearing a dark, patterned t-shirt. His hands are shown in close-up, holding drumsticks and mallets, as he plays the instruments. The background is plain and light-colored.

A Unique Marimba, Drums, Percussion Performer and Soloist

Biography

The internationally renowned marimba & percussion soloist Ziv Eitan performs original concertos for marimba, percussion and orchestra, composed by Zach Drory & Ronen Shapira. Written especially for Ziv Eitan Drory and Shapira's marimba and percussion concertos offer unique and original works that combine western—classical European styles with Middle Eastern—ethnic—Arab motifs, using eastern and western percussion instruments; marimba, vibraphone, darbuka, frame drum, snare, bass and tom drums, gongs, cymbals, and special percussion effects, and symphony orchestra.

The works are perfectly tailored to Ziv Eitan's colorful musical personality: a true virtuoso with high speed technique who communicates singular and intense power, passion, energy and dynamism, while at the same time displaying depth, sensitivity, calm and gentleness. Though his music, Ziv Eitan offers audiences a deep emotional experience, appealing to both young and older listeners worldwide. The international premiere of the proposed concertos was performed with the New Brandenburg Orchestra in 2009, whose great success generated interest and additional collaborations with orchestras from Europe, Asia and the U.S. He appears on major music stages worldwide—from leading concert halls, like the Treptow Arena in Berlin to football stadium in the U.S—and performs at leading international festivals. His performances have integrated modern dance groups, theatre actors, diverse musicians from around the world, video artist and DJ's. Ziv Eitan has also received the recommendation of Foreign Ministry to represent Israeli culture around the world.

Ziv Eitan has performed his main show called "Journey into Rhythm" on numerous occasion in many countries. He also holds master classes for university students and musicians, special concerts for children and teenagers, performances for corporate and global enterprises, TV and radio shows, in addition to appearing as a soloist with symphony orchestras.

“Journey into Rhythm”

The Ultimate Concert of the 21st Century.

“A Journey into Rhythm” is a boundless musical journey, devoid of any frameworks or prejudices, which crosses diverse and powerful musical genres and styles – ranging from Bach to 21st century music.

The performance combines original and innovative works that were especially written for Ziv Eitan by neo-Romantic composers. The works are a mix of romantic classical music, electronic music and world music.

Classic-electronic and Arabic. Classic-electronic and Japanese, Classic-electronic and India influence and more..

Ziv Eitan, the percussion and marimba Artist, leads the dynamic performance like a true virtuoso. This multifaceted artist has acquired a unique and daring playing style, whose works are characterized by an acute emotional transition from one style to another. Eitan is accompanied by Yoni Givoni, also a percussionist, and Yoni niv, a cellist and Liora izthak Indian singer.

The combination between an uninhibited total performance and innovative, international music makes this a unique, complete and moving performance, never witnessed in the past.

Click HERE to see Show Reel

TEEV

www.teev.com